vs. F. H. Bessie, No. 15517 Before J. C. Ford, Justice of the Peace, for Knox County, Tenn.
You are hereby notified that on this 3rd day of September, 1917, upon complaint on oath made to me by Wm. N. Bessie, that you, F. H. Bessie, are justly indebted to Wm. N. Bessie Tire & Supply Company in the sum of $172.70 and that you have removed yourself and certain of your property from the State and are now residing out of the State, I, J. C. Ford, Justice of the Peace, for Knox County, Tennessee, issued an attachment against the property of F. H. Bessie under said complaint and upon said day of Sept. 30, 1917, I sold by way of public sale for said Knox County, Tennessee, upon certain furniture, draperies and household goods, the said F. H. Bessie in Knox County, Tennessee, and you hereby notified by sight and a few days later commenced by attachment of your property at the office of J. C. Ford, Justice of the Peace for Knox County, Tennessee, at 10 o'clock a. m. on the 10th day of October 1917, and failing to do so, said suit will proceed ex parte.

This notice will be published in the Knoxville

Epitome of Interesting Events That Are Transpiring Over
the State

Collierville.—The First State Bank & Trust company was organized here with a capital stock of $15,000 paid up.

Manchester.—The county democratic primary, called for March 9, will apparently be well supplied with candidates.

Watertown.—While operating a joiner at the Watertown planing mill Ernest Patton, son of the proprietor, lost three fingers from his right hand.

Memphis.—Fire destroyed the building and contents of the Joseph Rosenfield company, ladies' clothing. Loss, $75,000, partly covered by insurance.

Bristol.—In amount and quality the Sullivan county wheat yield of the present year is said to have surpassed that of any other county in East Tennessee.

Knoxville.—Sam E. Clearfire, for 12 years East Tennessee clerk to the supreme court, was re-elected to that position by the court for another term of six years.

Ashland City.—The annual Cheata-ma county fair will be held at this place on Oct. 19, and preparations are now under way to make this the most successful ever held.

Chattanooga.—Earl Graul, interned German sailor, who died at base hospital, Fort Oglethorpe, was given a military funeral and his body interred in the National Cemetery.

Memphis.—Trapped on the upper floor of her residence by flames which cut off her escape by stairs, Mrs. John W. Brownell leaped from a secondstory window. She was painfully injured.

Milan.—Mrs. Henry Gunter was killed and three others painfully injured when an L. & N. freight train struck an automobile in which they were riding at Bluff Springs crossing, three miles from Milan.

Memphis.—Memphis has contributed more physicians to the medical corps of the army than any other city in the United States, in proportion to its population, according to information contained in a telegram.

Alamo.—The Mayor of Alamo, Tex., see will hold a state convention in the city of Alamo on Tuesday, Nov. 6.
There will be a large number of tents and each tent will have a representative to this convention.

Jackson.—Organization of farmers in various ways, in order to do their patriotic duty to their country in the war crisis, was the keynote of practically all the addresses delivered at the session of the West Tennessee Farmers' Institute.

Newbern.—The old school building and lot owned by the Newbern public school, which is located on the north side of the railroad, near the business section of the city, was sold here at auction by City Recorder Tobe Ful-ham, and brought $2,600.

Chattanooga.—W. H. Payne, a popular member of the Chattanooga bar, was drowned in the Tennessee river.
He missed his footing while crossing a gang plank leading from a launch to the dock and fell into the river.

Chattanooga.—The four hundred and more interned Germans at Fort Oglethorpe have been moved to their new prison barracks, which a squad of the prisoners built. The barracks are fashioned after the modern soldier cantonments and are provided with all modern conveniences.

Athens.—The Rev. Albert Keller, the new pastor of the Mars Hill Presbyterian church in Athens, and the Rev. S. B. Ogile, new pastor of the First Baptist church, have arrived and both ministers filled their pulpits Sunday morning and evening and were heard by large congregations. Dr.
Keller comes from St. Louis and Dr.
Ogile from Nashville.

Jackson.—The trial of Dr. J. E. Voss, a well-known chemist of the city and former head of the socialist party in Tennessee, who is charged with the murder of Oscar Blakeny in November, 1915, will be held in the Madison criminal court Sept. 19. Dr. Voss was tried a year ago and found guilty of second count reviewed the case it reversed the lower court and stated he could not be tried on a charge greater than that of voluntary manslaughter. Dr. Voss killed Blakeny on the ground that the latter had insulted his (Voss's) wife.

Knoxville.—All cows which prove "stackers" or fail to produce the amount of milk that they should this winter will be "indicted" and sent to the butcher, according to a decision of the Knox County Cow Testing association.

Bristol.—For the ninth year in succession Judge Joseph L. Kelly of the Virginia state supreme court, has been elected teacher of the State Street Methodist church Baraca class. This class is said to be the largest of its kind in the world. It numbers more than 1,400 members.

Knoxville.—All cows which prove
tion.

Bristol.—The local Girl Scouts have raised a special fund of $300 for the local militia companies.

Seimer.—Dr. W. W. Wallace is at his father's home here, suffering from a broken leg, the result of an accident with his automobile near Wenasoga, Miss.

Knoxville.—A total of 10,734 men registered in the biennial registration in Knox county, according to figures just completed by the election commission.

Dyersburg.—The annual convention of the Knights of the Maccabees will be held here Nov. 6, and delegates from various chapters of the state will be present.

Dyersburg.—E. F. Arnold, farm demonstrator agent for Dyer county for the last year, has resigned to accept the management of the Moss Bros. farms in this county.

Clarksville.—In the criminal court in the case of the State vs. Mannie Pardee, the jury returned a verdict of murder in the first degree, under mitigating circumstances.

Jackson.—The Rev. H. R. Rose, the new pastor of the First Methodist church, made his first appearance before the congregation, and preached to a large congregation.

Jackson.—When the pressure tank at the International Rubber Sales company exploded Will Ross, an employee, standing near the tank, was painfully cut and bruised.

Huntingdon.—Hon. John T. Peeler has been appointed election commissioner for Carroll county to fill the vacancy in the local board caused by the resignation of W. E. Halley.

Dyersburg.—Rev. Hugh S. McCord, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of this city for the past five years, tendered his resignation to his official board, to take effect Nov. 1.

Newbern.—Rev. C. G. McIlwain preached his farewell sermon as pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church here. Mr. McIlwain was pastor of the Cumberland church for five years.

Union City.—The September term of the circuit court opened with Judge Jones and Attorney-General Morris both present. There is a large docket to be disposed of during the four weeks' term.

Announcement to this effect, the message said, was made at a meeting of the executive committee of the Council of National Defense at Washington. Seventy Memphis physicians and surgeons have enlisted, it was said here.

Lexington.—Emmett Myracle, aged 22, a young married man living three miles from Wildersville, in this county, committed suicide by shooting himself in the abdomen with a pistol, the bullet passing upward and piercing his lungs.

Chattanooga.—Karl Graul, warant officer, one of the interned German sailors from the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, confined at Fort Oglethorpe, is dead of fever. This is the first death to occur among the German prisoners since their confinement.

Trezevant.—Central Association of Baptists met in the eighty-first annual session with the Oakwood church, between Milan and Cades, for a three days' session, with Moderator B. F.
Jarrell of Humboldt in the chair and Clerk C. H. Warren of Jackson at the table.

Clarksville.—Rose Jackson, a prominent farmer of the Thirteenth district, 40 years old, was killed on his farm, near Palmyra, when a heavy piece of timber fell on him, breaking his neck. Mr. Jackson was hauling timber when a heavy beam became dislodged.

Gallatin.—The urgent demand of the government for an increase in wheat yield has awakened much interest among the farming element of Sumner county, and a campaign has been arranged for the southern part of the county to hold meetings at several important points.

Dyersburg.—A contracting firm of Dyersburg has been awarded the contract to build the gravel road from Tiptonville to Reelfoot Lake. The contract was approved by Secretary Murray of the state highway commission.
Plans are on foot to complete a gravel road entirely around the lake.

Points emphasized were organization for the betterment of farming conditions and to help feed the armies of the United States and its allies; organization for the spread of educational methods in all sections of the country; organization for the betterment of the public health and for spreading information regarding the prevention and cure of curable diseases; organization of community clubs to do things systematically and effectively.

Mt. Pleasant.—At a men's mass meeting a home guard company was organized with sixty members. The following officers were elected: R.
P. Blackmer, captain; T. H. Shockey, first lieutenant; Watkins Cecil, second lieutenant.

Knoxville.—The body of Guy Gillespie, killed in the British trenches "somewhere in France," will be brought here for burial. The news of the soldier's death reached his wife in Knoxville from the lieutenant of her husband's regiment.
